Sunday Morning Adult Education "Writing Your Soul Story Series" – Ralph Thompson

Each one of us has a story to tell. It is a story of the events and people that have impacted and shaped our life experience. A Soul Story looks below the surface of our experiences to reflect on how God speaks to us. In the series, you will be invited to write your Soul Story.* No one has to write a story.

Class time each week will be spent examining scripture for its relevance in understanding our life experiences. Those choosing to write your Soul Story will be given instructions on how to begin during the first class. Writing will take place in your own home over the four week period.

Bible passage for the series, Proverbs 3:5-6

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not unto your own understanding.
In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He will direct your paths."

March 10 – In class sharing will be on, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart." Introduction to, "Writing Your Soul Story." Please bring a pen and notebook to class. Begin writing you Soul Story at home.

March 17 – In class sharing will be on, "And lean not unto your own understanding." What are some of the elements of a Soul Story? Continue writing your Soul Story at home.

March 24 – In class sharing will be on, "In all your ways acknowledge Him." How do we reflect on the spiritual meanings of life challenges? Continue writing your Soul Story at home.

April 7 – In class sharing will be on, "And He will direct your paths." How can we use our Soul Story for the good of others? Attendees will be invited to share part or all of their Soul Story that they have been writing.
